Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogüé
lbsl, #2414, demi-bouteille, outstanding color and condition
"The 1945 Vogüé Musigny V.V. was served out of magnum and was a spectacular bottle. It was very fresh with aromas of fabulous red fruits, spice, t n a, leather, more spice, earth, dust, minerals, rose and a cherry on top. There were great rose, cherry and mineral flavors with smoke and loads of tannins buried in its huge finish. There was a touch of citrus and old book rounding it out."(97pts JK)
1 half-bottle per lot $2000-3000
- 238 Musigny - Vintage 1947
Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogüé
4.5cm bc, hbsl, ltl, #2489, excellent color and condition
"The 47 was a bottle with an 8cm fill to which I said no thanks, which would have been one of the most colossal mistakes I ever made. The nose was absolutely incredible; oily, thick, nutty and sappy. The musk and t n a were divine; in fact, this was one of the most amazing noses I had ever encountered. Rust, spice, everything you could want in your Burgundy was here. The palate was thick as a brick with flavors of rose, oil, leather and game. Rich and spectacular, this even surpassed the mind-boggling bottle of '69 Roumier Musigny we just had. I still feel like I need to write another couple of paragraphs extolling the virtues of this wine. I quickly accepted the other three bottles from this batch of four."(98pts JK)

7.5cm bc, hbsl, tal, cuc, sdc, #020044, outstanding color, excellent condition
"...nose of cherry, chocolate, roses, and the most unbelievably silky tannins one could ever hope to find in a nose of wine, with alcohol still present as well...a dash of confectioner's sugar quality there too...perfect sweetness of fruit by Burgundy standards, with aromas of wet earth and truffle emerging...palate still fleshy with an earthy backbone, more like wet soil, and sweet nutty flavors (and aromas too)...tannins still firm yet also supple...hints of carob, jasmine, and cola...wine starts to lose a little stuffing after 15-20 minutes in the glass, but just a little, and a refill brought me back to Jesus...that roses in a dictionary thing starts to happen as well as a definite maple sap thing...wine gets saucier, but a hair missing in the middle...amazing at age 54."(96pts JK)
1 magnum per lot $10000-15000
- 240 Musigny - Vintage 1953
Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogüé
8cm bc, bsl, tl, sdc, #008514, outstanding color
"...elegant, spicy and fully mature nose that offers plenty of aromatic breadth leads to medium weight, slightly soft flavors that offer good if not exceptional precision and fine finishing complexity. This is beginning to tire and while it's still absolutely lovely, the power that this once had has slowly, if gracefully, dissipated. That said, if you have the chance, don't miss it as it still offers plenty of admire."(91pts BH)

"Bricked through to the center. An absolutely knockout nose that is unbelievably complex and refined with a haunting perfume that seems to run through every register from low to high without tripping on a note is followed by sweet, pure and elegant flavors that possess remarkable density and richness plus superb length. Despite the aromatic fireworks, this is an understated effort that still delivers solid power and excellent focus with impeccable focus and balance from nose to toe. Flat out great."

"Extremely ripe and spicy aromas of knockout complexity lead to remarkably youthful, big, rich, deep and stunningly complex flavors possessing a velvety finish of power and simply unbelievable length. This is one serious wine and I could taste the hauntingly pretty flavors for several days afterwards. Juice of this caliber is rare and while it is at its peak, well-stored bottles should continue to hold for years."(96pts BH)

"Rose and oil were first and foremost, then there was this menage a toi of citrus, leather and cedar, you know, the tasteful kind ha ha. The vitamins, minerals, spice and overall depth were extraordinary. This is the '71 LT I know and love, I wrote. The musk qualities were bringing sexy back, and the wine itself was bordering on a sexual experience. This was sheer liquid nobility, and all these observations are just describing the aromas! The palate kept pace with the nose; first and foremost, there was rust, citrus and spine galore. Its t n a was enormous, searing my mouth with its laser-like precision and possessing enough acidity to go another 36 years. There was a touch of vanilla and cream soda, and also a hint of eucalyptus. Rich and rusty with great spice, the '71 La Tâche also had a hint of tomato stew, in a good way. What a wine."(98pts JK)

"Got a quick 19/20 from Tom, and it had that great old tomato sex appeal. Yes, only in wine can old tomatoes have sex appeal, I know. The nose had a lot of other things going on, including cherry, rust, spice, spine and that unmistakable La Tâche terroir, all very balanced and round. There was great finesse and balance to the mouth with touches of spice and spine. It might not ever be better, but it was still outstanding, although Rob had to put it right on the bottom of 5 stars, indicating that he definitely thought it wouldn't get any better."(95pts JK)

 "The nose was a touch stewed, earthy with a bit of menthol and mint. The wine still had its edge to it, its swagger if you will, and there were tangy Bing cherry aromas. The wine was very meaty with a rich and long palate, with great alcohol and acid still. There was a lot of power and a long finish along with great earth flavors. Rudy called it great, but a little square and acidic.. There were Tabasco flavors, and this wine leveled out..."(94pts JK)

There is massive richness yet the wine sacrifices no detail and the voice of Romanée-Conti comes through clearly as there is breed to burn and yet for all the generosity and velvet, it retains a certain subtle reserve and perfect balance. In sum, this is a great RC..."(98pts BH)

On the palate, there is a veritable smorgasbord of earthly and heavenly delights. Needless to say, it is very rich, very opulent, and very concentrated. Red burgundy and red wine do not get any better than this."(100pts)

 "Extremely concentrated, exotic, and sensationally perfumed, with its telltale bouquet of oriental spices, toasty vanillin oak, berry fruit, and plums, this wine had fabulous gingery, cinnamon flavors as well as astonishing length. It is one of the most unique tasting experiences in the world. It is all pleasure, finesse, complexity and richness, and my feeling is that it is clearly the best wine this domaine has made in 1987."(95pts)

 "Deep ruby. A deeply pitched and distinctly different nose from what one usually finds in 10 year old RC as there are wonderfully dense and layered aromas of orange compote, red and black cherry along with the usual spice and floral notes, which introduces refined, pure and concentrated medium full flavors that possess the usual spectacular detail on the gorgeously persistent finish. This is beginning to lose its baby fat and the underlying sense of structure is becoming more prominent."(96pts BH)

This is still youthful if no longer young with a finish that is undeniably of grand cru quality and epitomizes power without weight, but beginning to drink well now. While this can be approached now, it will need another 7 to 8 years to really be at its best and it should hold at this superlative level for years."(95pts BH)

It was after discussing this flight that I was officially labeled a "Cros Parantoux whore." Well, the tasting was blind, I countered, and in the words of sweet Lou, It is what it is. "The 1985 H. Mayer Vosne-Romanée 'Cros Parantoux' had a shy and shut down nose at first, slowly opening to reveal game, forest, mushroom, cedar, mahogany and plummy fruit. While its nose was smooth and satiny, its palate had the cat's pee pungency, too. Long, chalky and a bit square at first, the Cros Parantoux had excellent ceramic and slate flavors, and more citric tension and flavors came out with aeration. The wine kept gaining in the glass and surpassed the Échézeaux. A pungent wine, but I found it just making the outstanding grade."(95pts JK)

"It was another masterful wine from the master himself. Mayer is vintage-proof! Year after year, he produces, and his wines start to get magical around age twenty never drink them young! The 87 had a phenomenal nose of purple and rose flowers mixed with Thai peanut, carob and musk. There was great pitch to its elegantly sweet fruit. The wine was pure, delicate yet strong. Rich, round and delicious, there was bright fruit and vitamin flavors, bordering on a benevolent metal/minerals thing. This was still great wine."(93pts JK)

"The 1988 was the first and only wine to show a hint of gamy maturity, that kinky, fleshy style that Mayer transforms into after age twenty or so, plus or minus depending on the quality of the vintage. The 1988 was very sexy, just starting to show some flesh, sweet in its purple and with a splash of vitamins as well. The classic Mayer musk and kink were there, and the palate was chewy and fleshy, no easy task to achieve in 1988, which is a rugged, tannic, structure first vintage. The 1988 was tasty as well. Its delightful drinkability and approachability stood out in this first flight. While the 1988 might not get much better, score one for Mayer. The 88 should still have a reasonably long plateau ahead of it, to be clear."(94pts JK)

"Massively constructed and still incredibly primary in every respect with its blend of spice and black pinot fruit plus a pungent, penetrating mineral firmness and vibrant acidity. The tannins coat the mouth yet they are ripe and the wine exudes balance and harmony. While this is stunning now, it is nowhere close to ready. Check back in 2008 though I suspect the 93 Cros will still be several years short of its peak as this has 30 years of aging potential. One of the truly great wines of the vintage."(95pts BH)

In the mouth, its fruit was tender, wound yet seductive with delicious brick and leather backbones. Still on the baby side, the fruit was coy and on the red side of currant flavors. Its gorgeous, smoky fruit was adolescent yet still ready to be Burgundy's next top model, silky smooth and classy with a just right, nice touch of toasty oak."*(96+pts JK)

He would know, and after having this bottle, it was hard to disagree. In the mouth, the wine was rich, meaty, earthy and intense. Its finish lasted longingly. "It was in outstanding condition, and the wine delivered a more than outstanding performance. It had a pungent, gamy nose with incredible sweet fruit behind, a veritable symphony of red, black and purple. There were loads of vitamins, musk, minerals and pungent leather. We are talking rare air, I wrote. Its tannins and acidity were still so fresh; it was an impeccably kept bottle. Its gamy complexity walked itself out into a Versailles garden of aromas, barefoot and perfectly manicured. The palate was equally as spectacular as the nose: rich, meaty, long and balanced with flavors of earth, game, leather, musk and dark, pungent meat. It had a pinch of benevolent barn, in a farmer's daughter way, I suppose. A touch of benevolent cat box also joined the party, blending into a wicked streak of anise. The vigor, the kink, the intensity, the game in my mind, the 1985 Meo Richebourg is the wine of the vintage."(98pts JK)

 "There was a backup bottle, and even though we technically did not need a backup, Mark pulled the cork without hesitation. That was a good thing, as it was a 1976 DRC Montrachet. Its nose was sweet and minty, exotically sweet like a guava. Tom added, 'green honeydew melon,' and corn was there as well. Tom also noted an 'iron element.' The palate was big-time; buttery and rich with a mineral dry finish. It was an impressive '76 and had me wondering if the whites might have an edge over the reds in this decent, yet not incredibly desirable vintage. Dave, our birthday boy, noted, 'rich, silky, spicy, cloves.' Sweet caramel also came out in this excellent white."(94+pts JK)

It appears less animalistic than usual, offering gorgeously pure notes of incense, melted road tar, fried bacon, blackberries, blueberries, smoked meats, and vanilla. Literally out of this world in terms of flavor concentration and balance, the finish lasts well over 60 seconds. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2030. I think it was Robert who gave us some musical perspective, noting that 1966 was the year that The Beatles released 'Revolver' and 'Rubber Sole,' and that it was also pre Jimi Hendrix or Cream. Rob called it 'like a Rhône Pomerol,' and it did have a rich and amazing nose that was still so La Mouline. I loved it when it was an infant, and now that it may, or may not be, fully mature, I still think it is the quintessential expression of Guigal's La Mouline. The color remains an inky garnet, with no perceptible lightening at the edges. The celestial aromas include copious quantities of black raspberries, coconut, smoked duck, Asian spices, and violets. It overloads the olfactory senses. On the palate, this wine reveals unreal concentration, layers of thick, juicy fruit, beautifully integrated acidity and tannin, and a sumptuous finish that lasts for more than a minute. "This wine is perfect. It is undoubtedly the greatest vintage for Guigal since 1978. Take all the characteristics I described for the wines in 1998 and 1997, then add an ethereal lightness of character, surreal aromatics, and a seamlessness that is uncanny given the massive richness and layers of flavors this wine possesses. The explosive aromatics tend to be more exaggerated in 1999. The wine is more evolved and seductive than the 1998s, but its aging potential should not be underestimated. It has at least two decades of life. In short, Guigal has performed a classic hat trick in 1999 with his La La's."(100pts)

Réserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau
"These wines often taste as if someone took one of the old Grenache vines, threw it in a Cuisinart, liquified it, added a bit of brandy, and then bottled it. This is classic Châteauneuf-du-Pape, the likes of which are increasingly difficult to find."(93pts)

La Chapelle, P. Jaboulet
"This wine was inserted as a ringer in a tasting of old vintages of some extraordinary Bordeaux. I was able to guess what it was, but not without difficulty. At first I thought it was a 1961 Latour à Pomerol given its sweet nose and expansive, lavishly rich palate. However, with airing, some of the wild, game-like, smoked duck aromas that I associate with Syrah began to emerge. The wine is in extraordinary condition. Still improving, it exhibits an unctuous texture, unbelievable concentration, and a profound bouquet. The finish is out of this world. It is unquestionably one of the greatest wines ever made."(100pts)

*"Opaque plum/garnet-colored, with a fabulously sweet, youthful bouquet of licorice, incense, smoked meats, pepper, and blackberry/cassis fruit, the full-bodied 1978 La Chapelle is extremely young with astonishing vigor, velvety tannin, and a full-bodied, multi-dimensional, layered personality.  "Spectacular aromatics offer up aromas of incense, smoke, blackberry fruit, cassis, barbecue spice, coffee, and a touch of chocolate. As it sits in the glass, additional nuances of pepper and grilled steak emerge. There is extraordinary freshness for such a mammoth wine in addition to abundant tannin, an amazing 60-second finish, and a level of glycerin and thick, fleshy texture that have to be tasted to be believed."(100pts)

- 425 Hermitage - Vintage 1997
La Chapelle, P. Jaboulet
 "The wine looks impressive, with a viscosity and unctuous richness. There is amazing fat and chewiness, as well as spectacular aromatics of over-ripe black currants and blackberries intermingled with barbeque spices, soy, and jammy black fruits. The tannin seems lost in the wine's full-bodied, silky-textured, voluptuously rich, staggeringly concentrated style. The mid-palate explodes with sweetness, glycerin, and extract. The finish lasts for 40+ seconds."(93pts)

 "The utterly perfect, dense ruby/purple-colored 1996 Barbaresco Asili (Red Label Riserva) is a heroic offering brilliantly displaying both power and elegance. The bouquet develops incrementally, offering up aromas of black raspberries, cherries, cigar box, licorice, and leather. The wine impresses with its nuances as well as its extraordinarily rich, dense mid-palate, and a finish that lasts nearly a minute. There is huge tannin, but equally massive concentration, extract, and overall harmony."(98pts)

- 445 Dominus - Vintage 1994
“...strikingly thick, compellingly rich wine with the texture of a great Pomerol, despite being made primarily from Cabernet Sauvignon. The wine exhibits a dense purple color, and an incredibly fragrant nose of jammy black fruits, spice, smoke, and loamy, truffle-like scents. In the mouth, it is full-bodied, with thrilling levels of extract and richness, but no sense of heaviness or harshness. This seamless Dominus possesses no hard edges, as its acidity, tannin, and alcohol are beautifully meshed with copious quantities of ripe fruit.”(99pts)

“The 1997 Harlan Estate is one of the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines I have ever tasted. A blend of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, with the rest Merlot and Cabernet Franc, this enormously-endowed, profoundly rich wine must be tasted to be believed. Opaque purple-colored, it boasts spectacular, soaring aromatics of vanilla, minerals, coffee, blackberries, licorice, and cassis. In the mouth, layer after layer unfold powerfully yet gently. Acidity, tannin, and alcohol are well-balanced by the wine's unreal richness and singular personality. The finish exceeds one minute.”(100pts)
